Object: application for the position accounts receivable specialist.

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing to express my interest in the accounts receivable specialist position advertised via LinkedIn. Being well-experienced in the accounting field, with good educational background training in finance, I am ready to contribute to the success of your team. From my past experiences, I have garnered the skills and expertise that shall enable me to perform well in this role.

In my previous experiences I have managed collections operations, I collaborated with major customers for the resolution of payment-related issues. I also performed reconciliations of accounts on a regular basis to ensure accurate records and maintain the integrity of financial data.

My technical proficiency in SAP and Excel, along with my fluency in both English and French, position me to succeed in an international finance environment. I am an organized and reliable professional who has a great supporting attitude and continuous interest in process improvement. My "can-do" mindset, together with my effective team working abilities, fully aligns with your company's values.

Thank you for considering my application I am excited to take part in the engagement of your innovative and dynamic team, to share your values, and to be part of an international and enriching environment. I am looking forward to discuss how my skills and experience align with the requirements of accountant position further.

Sincerely,

Ikhimmi Fatima Zahra
